

Ways you can help your child with the German language learning

- Sing German songs (type in Youtube):
 - o "Koerperteil Blues"
- Watch German movies (YouTube):
 - o Ich mach dich gesund sagte der Bär
 - o German for children and beginners: at the doctor's [to learn]
 - o Peppa Wutz or Biene Maya [to enjoy]
- Listen to an audio book (for German speaker):
Bibi Blockberg ist krank
- If possible, read German books to your child.
 - o The children are allowed to borrow German books from the school's library.

This term our topic is the body - healthy and sick

Here are some suggestions on how you can support your child with the German language learning:

I recommend Duolingo as an easy app and fun home learning tool.

All children should practise to read and write the key vocabulary during the next few weeks. If you choose to do anything else in addition, please record it in their German homework books.

Due date for homework is February 10th.

Many thanks,
Miss Kristine
