This term our topic is me and my body.

Here are some suggestions on how you can support your child with the German language learning:

I recommend Duolingo as an easy app and fun home learning tool.

All children should practise to read and write the key vocabulary during the next few weeks. If you choose to do anything else in addition, please record it in their German homework books.

Due date for homework is February 10th.

Many thanks,
 Miss Kristine
