

Headteacher, Judith Kerr Primary School

Location: Herne Hill, South London

Contract type: Permanent

Hours: Full time

Start date: September 2020 (or earlier by negotiation)

Salary: L15-L21

We are seeking an exceptional individual to lead Judith Kerr Primary School following the appointment of the current Headteacher to the headship of a new school in a neighbouring London borough.

Since opening in 2013, Judith Kerr Primary School has been providing a distinctive curriculum that offers a bilingual education to all. Inspired by its patron, children's author Judith Kerr OBE, the school embeds both German and English languages, cultures and traditions in an inspiring and relevant way that challenges minds and raises aspirations.

Judith Kerr Primary School has been judged Good in both of its Ofsted inspections (2015 and 2019) and has many Outstanding features. Outcomes for Key Stages for 1 and 2 have been consistently Outstanding.

The school is proud to be part of Anthem - a multi-academy trust serving over 8,000 children and young people in 16 schools across the East Midlands, London and Thames Valley. Anthem is supported by Education Development Trust, an international company with charitable status that has been providing a range of education services all over the world for over 50 years.

We are looking to appoint a Headteacher with a proven track record at senior leadership level in a high-performing primary school. You will have the passion and skill to deliver inspirational and motivational leadership across the school that will sustain and develop the established secure foundations and develop further outstanding performance in all areas of the school's work. You will create a stimulating, nurturing, happy, safe and productive learning environment that is engaging and fulfilling for all pupils and continue to build teaching capacity by working collaboratively within the school, with local partnerships and with other schools across the Trust.

The ability to speak German is not essential for this role, although the successful candidate will be expected to lead and promote the unique and innovative curriculum of the school with its strong focus on the teaching and learning of German.

Anthem is committed to being a place where everyone can thrive, so you can look forward to high-quality professional development opportunities, the chance to work as part of a collaborative team of London headteachers

To request an application pack, please contact enquiries@anthemtrust.uk.

Prospective applicants are also welcome to have an informal discussion with the Education Director for London and the Thames Valley, Karen Walker. To do so, please contact us via the email address above.

The closing date for applications is Monday, 16 March at 9.00am. Interviews for shortlisted candidates will be held on Friday, 20 March.

Find out more about at www.jkps-cfbt.org and www.anthemtrust.uk

Anthem and its schools are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. All applicants must undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service.