	Identified Pupil Group	Pupil need/s	How were pupil need/s identified?	Chosen action / approach	Evidence and rationale for this choice	Desired Outcome and how/when it will be measured
A	Year 2 who were not on track to pass phonics screening in year 1	Additional phonics teaching and catch up. Extra Phonics teaching time	Baseline assessments	Extra TA support for additional group teaching	Pupils unable to complete Phonics screening. Gaps in learning and lack of practice at home leading to pupils regressing in their phonic knowledge	Year 2 pupils making accelerated progress to develop and embed phonic knowledge and early reading skills
B	All Pupils	Adapted and refocused curriculum	Baseline assessments and knowledge of increased and prolonged disruption to schooling Each class will have a list of key children	High quality INSET and CPD aimed at supporting the recovery curriculum Additional support for teachers with identified cohort weaknesses	Prolonged time away from normal teaching routines New teachers to the school Flexibility in approaches needed in order to meet the needs of all pupils who may not be year group ready	That identified pupils make accelerated progress
C	Children moving from Yr. R to Year 1	A place based curriculum still required for the first half term to help pupils transition into year 1 s after lost learning time and for pupils who were already entering at an extremely low starting point	Baseline assessment End of year assessments Gap analysis of the foundation stage curriculum School available resources stock take	A continuum of reception created for first half term with more formal learning being merged in for a strong transition.	It's clear that the lost learning time for many of these pupils coupled with low starting point's means that an extension of the foundation curriculum is required to ensure the building blocks for prior learning are not missed and misconceptions are identified and dealt with.	For teacher to have the resources available to continue a play-based approach to learning to allow pupils to go through the appropriate stages of child development.
