

Newsletter – Week Ending 11/12/2020

Dear Parents and Carers,

It's a very short newsletter this week (I can hear your sighs of relief), as we will have our end of year one on Wednesday (you'll be delighted to hear this one will be a novella!). Thank you so much for all the donations of cans we will arrange the horizontal tree on Monday and Tuesday - so if you wish to bring in more, there is still time. At the end of term, we will drop them off to our local food bank.

The children's framed prints are arriving on Monday morning, hopefully in time for collection, otherwise they can be collected on Tuesday and Wednesday morning. You still have time to order them and the prints of the children's beautiful artwork: to obtain the prints you need to use the sheet with the sample print that your child brought home.

Tickets for the winter ball are selling like hot cakes: we look forward to seeing all the 'winterballers' arriving in their festive attire on Thursday - all the staff have promised to try their best as well. If you still haven't purchased a ticket for your child, please visit SchoolsBuddy and do so before Thursday.

I believe that the poster for the school music videos wasn't attached last week (you may have observed, we are quite good at referring to attachments and forgetting to attach them). All the children have been working hard in their music lessons to record a song, and for a mere £2.50 you can access the wonderful choral delights of JKPS - again please visit SchoolsBuddy to buy your ticket.

Finally, a reminder that Thursday is the last day of school for the children. Until then have a wonderful weekend!

Warm Regards,

Jo Ryan
Headteacher
