

Dear Parents,

Happy Friday all! We had another busy week that has zoomed by quickly.

Birthday wishes to Maggie in Year 4 who has donated a book for our library, here she is adding her special label. Thank you, Maggie.

Eid

On Wednesday 12th May, Eid Al-Fitr marks the end of the holy month of Ramadan for Muslims. To celebrate, we are encouraging the children to come to school on Thursday 12th May, dressed in their interpretation of a celebratory outfit.

In school we will be looking into this celebration and in the spirit of Ramadan, we ask that the children bring in a donation of £1.00 that will be given to Goodwill Caravan who support the refugee crisis in Greece. <https://www.goodwillcaravan.com/>

Walk to School Week

Next week, 17-21st May, is 'Living Streets National Walk to School Week'. Primary Schools across the country are being encouraged to taking part in the five-day challenge. Here at Judith Kerr, we are encouraging families - where possible - to take to their feet and walk, cycle or scoot to and from school for these five days to see the big differences that come from small steps - from healthier and happier children to fewer cars outside the school gates. A booklet and activity pack can be downloaded for free at:

Reminders

- Don't forget to collect your sunflower seeds to plant
- We have a lot of spare, unnamed (or washed out names) sweatshirts, containers in our lost found – when you have a minute, have a look through and see if there's anything you can claim.

German Word of the Week

Again, we're thanking Mr Manfred for this week's word:

German Word of the Week

Our word of the week is:

Ausdauer

Literal meaning (noun): out of duration

This word is one which is particularly relevant to these trying times – it means perseverance.
